

Official Plan Review and Update Background & Future Directions Report Workshop An opportunity to shape the future of Stratford

Background & Future Directions Report Workshop
Wednesday December 5, 2012 7-9 pm
Rotary Complex, 353 McCarthy Road, Tim Taylor Lounge

The City of Stratford, as part of Shaping Stratford, its Official Plan Review and Update program, invites you to the second of five public sessions which are a key part of this important planning program.

Workshop Goal: To review the key background information and consider proposed future directions for the community's development to 2032 as a basis for the preparation of the updated Official Plan.

The Opportunity: To provide your input on background information about Stratford which you consider important, and to share your views on future directions for the development of your community including the vision for Stratford, residential intensification, housing, urban design, and sustainable development.

The Event: Following an introductory overview presentation, the session will be highly interactive. You will be invited to share your views through group discussions which will be reported back at the end of the session. For those unable to stay for the whole session comment sheets will be available. Whether or not you can stay for the whole session please come prepared to actively participate!

Alternative Opportunities for Input: Your input is important. If you cannot attend the workshop, you can also share your views online – please visit the Shaping Stratford website at www.shapingstratford.ca. The website will also provide you with additional information on the study and allow you to add your name to the Study mailing list.
